Cary Academy tuition scholarships now available

The deadline to apply for the Cary Academy tuition scholarship is Jan. 29, 2010

SAS is pleased to announce the Cary Academy Scholarship Program for the 2010-2011 academic year.

New this year!

SAS will award new Cary Academy tuition scholarships for the 2010-2011 academic year to current or newly accepted students.

All children of SAS employees, with at least one year of continuous service by the deadline date of Jan. 29, 2010, are eligible to apply for the scholarships. Dependent children are biological and legally adopted children, stepchildren or children of domestic partners (signed affidavit required).

More information on scholarship program:

Cary Academy scholarships are merit based. Scholarship America is a third party vendor that selects the recipients based on:

- The student's past academic performance.
- Future potential.
- Leadership.
- Letter of recommendation.
- Participation in school and community activities.
- Unusual personal or family circumstances.
- Outside appraisal.

Scholarships are renewable up to six years or until a diploma is earned, whichever occurs first, on the basis of continued enrollment at Cary Academy, satisfactory student performance, and continued parental employment/eligibility. Scholarship America contacts renewal candidates for updated information.

Scholarship application

Cary Academy students and new applicants to the school who wish to apply for the scholarships are required to fill out a separate application form.

New applicants must apply to Cary Academy and apply separately for the scholarship by Jan. 29.

Currently enrolled Cary Academy students who wish to be considered for the scholarship must apply for the scholarship by Jan. 29.

Request a scholarship application, and send it in, along with all other required documents listed on the application, to Scholarship America by Jan. 29.

New scholarship recipients will be notified by e-mail at the end of April 2010.
