

You won't believe the view

Employees can purchase Harrah's Cherokee Casino Deck tickets and 18th green reserved seats at discounted prices

The weather forecast calls for sun and mild temperatures. The field of players is the best in the tournament's 11 year history and includes defending champion Russ Cochran, the popular Fred Couples and eight World Golf Hall of Famers, including Tom Kite, who will be making his 1,000th career professional start this year.

Yes, indeed, the 2011 SAS Championship presented by Bloomberg Businessweek is shaping up to be the best ever.

You can experience all the action from the best seats on the course in the Harrah's Cherokee Deck 17th Green Skybox. A beautiful open-air venue, the Skybox provides premier seating at the SAS Championship. Avoid the hassle of waiting in lines and concessions stands and enjoy the unobstructed view with a buffet, snacks and an open bar only steps away.

Tickets to the Skybox normally sell for $89 per day, but the SAS Championship is offering SAS employees tickets at $69 each. Tickets are sold for one specific day, Friday, Saturday or Sunday.

A limited number of 18th Green reserved seats are still available and include wait services for cash concessions and a cash bar. These tickets are regularly priced at $50, but SAS employees can purchase them for $30.

To receive the discount, contact Internal Communications to receive the special discount code, and then purchase your tickets online using the code at the checkout page to validate the discount.

These great offers expire Thursday, Sept. 29, so act fast to get your chance to see the SAS Championship from some of the best seats on the course.
