

“Mentoring allowed me to deploy a solution much more quickly by targeting the SAS components that matched my business needs. In one day, we took two projects from conception to production. I will definitely invest in mentoring again in 2010.”

Director of Sales Operations

Hire a SAS instructor for on-the-job coaching and fast results.

SAS Mentoring Services delivers informal on-the-job coaching and consultation for you and a colleague. Use it to enhance what you learned in class and more quickly apply your new skills to your job or schedule it as a standalone event.

Benefits of Mentoring Services

- Get even quicker results from your class.
- Practice on your own data.
- Gain insight into your data and code.
- Get answers to your unique questions.
- Become more comfortable with new skills.

Types of Service

SAS Mentoring Services are structured around your unique needs and are extremely flexible. Whatever your need, we will work with you to develop a mentoring solution that's right for you.

- Add mentoring to an on-site training or schedule as a standalone event.
- Schedule a 1-2 day or a multiday session coaching event.
- Bring the instructor to you or connect via phone or Web conference.

Pricing

Mentoring service fees vary depending on the level of instruction needed. Travel costs for SAS staff are additional.
