

Training Title to be confirmed
Business Intelligence Competency Center
Target Group	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Senior consultants and project managers involved in data warehousing projects, • IT Managers, • BICC stuff, • BI consultants, • Warehouse architects, • Warehouse analysts, • Warehouse advisors
Duration	1 day
Pre-requisites	Recommended is an overview of BI and its functionality
Objectives	Today's organizations are driven by information. That means the organization are more than ever focused on information availability, their precision and reliability. Business Intelligence Center is a cross-functional team with defined tasks, roles, responsibilities and processes for support and presentation of effective BI utilization in organization. This course focuses on definition on basic terms regarding BICC, concept behind BICC as well as the implementation of those concept in organizational environment and evaluation of impacts that BICC might have on organization.
Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • BICC - definition and basic terms • Reasons for implementing BICC • Concept behind BICC <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What must be considered before implementation ○ BICC functional areas ○ Virtual vs Central BICC ○ BICC funding models ○ BICC performance measurements • Impacts of BICC on organization • The process for BICC Implementation • Recommendations for BICC Implementation