

Training Title
Compact Vision of BI for IT Managers
20.5.2008
Target Group	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> IT Managers, BI consultants, BICC stuff, Warehouse architect, Warehouse analyst, Warehouse advisor, Warehouse consultant. Senior consultants and project managers involved in data warehousing projects
Duration	1 day
Pre-requisites	None
Objectives	Understand your IT department as your business partner. IT departments should support the strategic and business goals of organization. Using reliable, timely and accurate information is the basic requirement for flexible management of an organization. The solution is Business Intelligence that facilitates information distribution throughout the organization. In order to be able to analyze the existing BI solutions available on the market, it is necessary to have the proper know-how what must be considered when the discussions about BI implementation starts. This course will help you gain this basic overview of aspect that must be considered when thinking about BI solution: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Demonstrate the value of Business Intelligence implementation in organization. - Discuss aspects and benefits that BI might bring to organization - How to turn BI in organization into a competitive advantage - What criteria must be considered when choosing proper BI solution for your organization
Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Business Intelligence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Definitions of basic terms Concepts behind BI Why implement BI? What conditions must be met for BI implementation Business Value of BI for organization <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How to evaluate if organization is ready for BI project? How to calculate ROI on BI projects? Impacts of BI implementation on internal and business process of organization Demonstrate and discuss what are the benefits of BI implementation from business perspective Basic aspect for evaluation of BI solutions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What must be considered when choosing BI solution What are the organizational aspects that might have an impact on choosing the proper BI solution Follow up: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Next enhancements that could be done after BI project is implemented - BICC