

SAS[®] Self-Paced e-Learning Academic Offer

Thank you for your interest in SAS self-paced e-learning. Faculty, staff and students of post-secondary, degree-granting institutions may qualify for a 50% discount on all self-paced e-learning offerings. No other discounts apply.

To qualify for the discount, complete the following form, and mail it to the address below (or fax it to the fax number below) along with your payment or purchase order. Attach a photocopy of your faculty or student identification, or supply your current semester's transcript, or provide a letter from your human resources department stating that you are employed by the academic institution.

Once your registration information and payment have been received, you will receive e-mail with an order transaction number and instructions for accessing your online training. A receipt will be mailed to you.
