

SAS® LIVE WEB TRAINING

■ Key Benefits

- Participate from Anywhere: With access to a telephone and broadband internet.
- Reduced Costs: Our training is highly cost effective as the time and expense of travel and accommodation is saved.
- No need to have SAS® Installed: Our web-based Citrix interface means you can participate without having SAS installed on your machine.

Education is the best way to get more from your investment in SAS®, and ensure your organisation is working at peak performance.

SAS Live Web Training gives your organisation the flexibility to learn online when and where you need to. Your staff can log in at work or from home. Additionally, each course is divided into sessions enabling your staff to learn whilst keeping on top of their day-to-day responsibilities.

Service description

SAS® Live Web training delivers our standard public courses online. Additionally, Live Web is an ideal vehicle for custom courses.

You can participate in a Live Web session from anywhere with broadband and a telephone. This flexibility makes live web training very cost effective by eliminating travel time and expense as well as accommodation charges.

You also don't need to have SAS installed on your machine to take part. Once logged in, an expert SAS instructor will guide learning and answer questions in real time.

Service activities

The following courses are available on our public schedule:

- Querying and Reporting using SAS® Enterprise Guide®
- SAS® Programming 1: Essentials
