

With the new release of SAS®9, Business Intelligence just got a lot brighter

What is Business Intelligence and why is it important?

Whether you are a local business or a multinational, Business Intelligence solutions empower you to understand the costs, values and potentials throughout your entire organisation. Understanding your company's history and being able to forecast with accuracy yields benefits such as reduced costs, improved profit margins, realised opportunity and increased productivity.

Amadeus Software selects SAS®9 for Business Intelligence

Since 1989 Amadeus has implemented solutions for countless organisations gaining a reputation for delivering quality through expertise. Many of our solutions have exceeded their expected lifetimes, proving quality and capability beyond doubt. Maintaining this reputation requires the use of powerful and forward thinking software.

Implementing SAS®9 for our customers has demonstrated that it truly exceeds traditional data analysis and reporting concepts. A SAS®9 solution comprises Planning, ETL and Intelligent Storage through to Business Intelligence and Advanced Analytics.

Business Intelligence from Amadeus Software
