

Mark Raskino

Vice president and Gartner fellow, Gartner Research

Mark Raskino is a vice president and Gartner fellow in the Emerging Trends group of Gartner Research. Mr Raskino researches emerging business technology megatrends, analyzes how CEO agendas impact IT, and co-authors Gartner's annual "CIO Resolutions." He also co-chairs Gartner's annual Emerging Trends (Spring) Symposium.

In previous roles at Gartner, Mr Raskino has led real-time enterprise, cost containment and B2C e-business. Before joining Gartner, Mr Raskino was a senior e-business manager at British Airways following prior work on loyalty programmes, airport operations and revenue management systems. Early in his career, Mr Raskino worked in IT departments in telecommunications and oil industries.