In the event of a dispute over the identity of the individual making a particular Competition submission, the submission will be deemed to have been made by the registered user of the email/Internet account through which the submission was transmitted or with which the submission is associated. Sponsor (i) assumes no responsibility for any error, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, delay in operation or transmission, communications line failure, theft or destruction or unauthorized access to, or alteration of, submissions; (ii) is not responsible for any problems or technical malfunction of or relating to any communications equipment, telephone or cellular network, operations, or lines, computer, online systems, servers, or provider, computer equipment, hardware, software, failure of any entry information to be received by Sponsor on account of technical problems, human error or traffic congestion on the Internet or at any website or email server or address, and (iii) assumes no responsibility for any combination of the aforementioned events, including any injury or damage to any participant's or any other person's computer related to or resulting from participation in, or downloading or uploading any materials relating to, the Competition.

ELIGIBILITY FOR PARTICIPATION AND GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSIONS: To participate in the Competition, each team must be composed of between two to four (2-4) students who are at least 18 years of age at the time the entry is submitted, and either currently enrolled as a part-time or full-time student at an accredited post-secondary academic institution (college or university or its equivalent), or graduated no earlier than October 1, 2023. In addition, each team must have one (1) named faculty advisor. Your participation must be, in all respects, legal and lawful in the jurisdiction from which you make your submission. Sponsor is not responsible for submissions made in contravention of any law or regulation in any jurisdiction or location. Void in the Province of Quebec and where prohibited by law. Employees (including immediate family members and/or those living in the same household of each) of Sponsor and its subsidiaries and affiliated companies, and the immediate family members of each, are not eligible to participate.

Please note that data sets and a specific software/platform will not be provided by Sponsor for participation in this competition. Participating teams are required to (a) supply data according to the specifications provided below and (b) use campus licensed SAS software, SAS OnDemand for Academics software, or SAS Viya for Learners via the Internet. Participants using SAS Viya for Learners must follow the data upload instructions provided. Competition submissions must be the original work of the entrant not previously published or entered into a competition; must be suitable for publication; and must not infringe third-party rights. In addition, all entries must meet the following requirements:

Data requirements: Participating teams may use publicly available data sources subject to and in compliance with applicable license terms that allow full participation in the competition, including presentation at the conference by grant recipients, and are not subject to any other restrictions on use or access. Data sets must be anonymized and not include any personal information or confidential information. Entries must include (a) a link to the data or appended data set and (b) applicable license terms. Teams must give appropriate attribution as applicable. Without limiting any other provision of these Terms and Conditions, all participants expressly agree that their access to, submission of, and use of data in connection with this Competition will adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, and third-party licenses or terms of use.

Submission requirements: Participating teams are expected to conduct data analysis using SAS software and write a paper that defines the problem, describes the analysis performed, and presents the results in such a manner as to be of use in business, science, government, education, health care, etc. Teams will be judged on the broad accessibility of results, so papers should be appropriately technical, but still understandable to non-analytics audiences. The paper must be two to five (2-5) pages in length and may include an optional appendix of up to two (2) additional pages. Papers going over the page and appendix limits will not be reviewed. The written paper must contain the following components:

- Introduction
- Data
- Problem
- Data Cleaning/Validation
- Analysis – must include a statement of the SAS software product used
- Visualization (graphs, charts, etc.) – can be included in an appendix.
- Suggestions for Future Studies
- Conclusion

Optional: Teams may opt to include an appendix of up to two (2) additional pages. The appendix will not count towards the 2-5 page length paper requirement. The appendix may include supporting details such as mathematical proofs, sample calculations (referred to in the text), supporting figures (tables, graphs, charts, or images), data (raw, summary, or data dictionary), lists of words, the questionnaire used in the research, a detailed description of an apparatus used in the research, etc.

JUDGING OF ENTRIES: Paper Submissions

Eligible paper entries will be judged according to the following four (4) criteria and considerations:

- Data preparation (25%)
 - Was the source of the data adequately documented?
 - Was the data cleaning process adequately explained?
- Data analysis (25%)
 - Were appropriate analytical methods used and adequately explained?
 - Was use of SAS software described?
- Data presentation (25%)
 - Were appropriate and attractive tables, graphics, or visuals provided?
- Impact and conclusions (25%)
 - Were the problem(s) clearly defined and objectives of the study precisely given?
 - Were results provided for a general, non-technical audience?
 - Were coherent and compelling findings and recommendations for future study given?

Each of the 4 components will be scored from 1 (vague, not given, poorly explained) to 10 (outstanding, one of the best).

Submissions will be reviewed by judges employed or designated by Sponsor who have qualifications sufficient to apply the criteria to the submissions.

FINAL ROUND: FINALIST TEAMS:

Based on the judging of the paper submissions, up to fifteen (15) teams will be selected as finalists and notified on or about March 6, 2024. Each of the finalist teams will create and submit a 20-minute video presentation. The video presentations are due by March 27, 2024.

JUDGING OF ENTRIES: Video Presentations

Video presentations by the finalist teams will be judged according to the following criteria and considerations:

- Organization
 - Is the presentation well organized with a beginning, middle, and end?
 - Does it have a strong organizing theme with clear main ideas and transitions?
- Subject Knowledge
 - Do students fully describe and comprehend the topic area and related analyses?
 - Are detailed explanations and elaboration of the topic and analyses provided?
- Visuals
 - Do students effectively design presentation slides and visualizations to add significant value to the presentation?
- Mechanics
 - Is this a professional quality presentation that could be given to decision makers on the job or experts in the field?
- Impact
 - Is the message delivered important and would it impact others?

Each of these five (5) elements will be scored by the judges on a scale of 1-10, then averaged, with a maximum possible presentation score of 10 per team.

The presentation score will then be added to each of the data preparation, data analysis, and data presentation scores from the paper submission to form three scores.

A winning and runner-up team will be identified for each of the data preparation, data analysis, and data presentation domains. A team can be awarded a winner or runner-up place in more than one domain. Three (3) total winning and three (3) total runner-up teams will be determined.

The top two teams in each domain will be selected and notified on or around April 16-19, 2024. Decisions of the judges are final. By participating, entrants agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions and the judges' decisions.
