

Integrated care will improve the quality for outcomes for patients at reduced costs.

The NHS speaks out via SAS research:

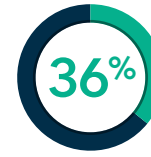

2000

SURVEYED

 PRACTITIONERS COMMISSIONERS

82%
Preparing for value-based healthcare

36%
Understand the benefits

64%
Say the benefits are not understood

3 MAIN MEASURES

PERSONAL
VALUE

TECHNICAL
VALUE

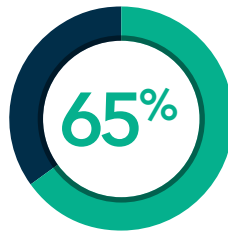

ALLOCATIVE
VALUE

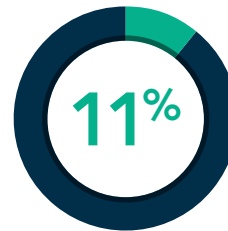

PATIENT OUTCOME REPORTING

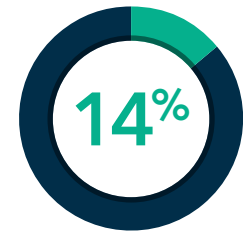

10%
Cannot measure outcomes

65%
Have limited ability to measure outcomes

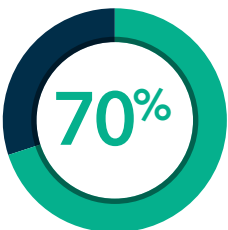

11%
Able to measure outcomes of every medical intervention across treatment cycles

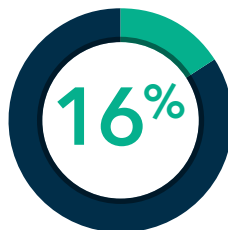

14%
Measure outcomes and change treatment plans to optimise health results

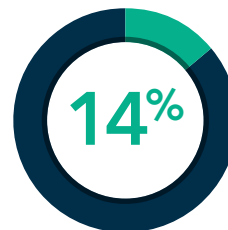

INTEGRATED CARE

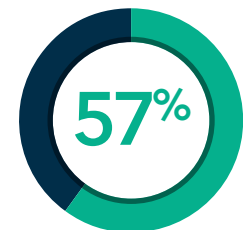

70%
Moving towards integrated care

16%
Say they have already done so

14%
Say no steps have been taken

57%
Say that are pooling some budget with their local authority

Download the full research: Value-based healthcare: the 'fix it' strategy for the UK?
at www.sas.com/uk/valuebasedhealthcare

